LANGHE DOC ARNEIS
IL NESPOLO
2018

Beguiling intensity here, with fruit ranging from loquat to apricots to apple tart. Full-bodied and succulent on the palate, which is round, spicy and quite weighty on the finish. Some good mineral drive to close, though. Drink now.

BARBARESCO DOCG
GAIA PRINCIPE
2016

Hazelnuts and cedar are the predominating force here with dried red cherries and plums taking a supporting role. This isn't solely about richness, though, as some solid acidity carves out a pointed construction of angular, powerful tannins and vertical acidity. Drink from 2023.
